2019 Mini Christmas Tree Decorating Contest

“Candy Canes and Gingerbread” is this year’s theme for the mini Christmas Tree Decoration Contest, sponsored by the North Little Rock History Commission. Neighborhood associations interested in participating will be provided with a three-foot Christmas tree to be decorated based on this year’s theme. Judging of the trees will take place during the North Little Rock Heritage Center’s Open House, Sunday, December 1, 2019. Cash prizes will be awarded.

Last year nine North Little Rock neighborhoods participated in the mini Christmas Tree Decorating Contest. The Holt neighborhood won first place. Rose City won second place and Dark Hollow won third place. Amboy, Argenta, Glenview, Melrose, Park Hill and Sherman Park all submitted creative entries. Entries are judged on originality of theme, continuity of harmony and design and over all appearance. Don’t let your neighborhood be left out this year!

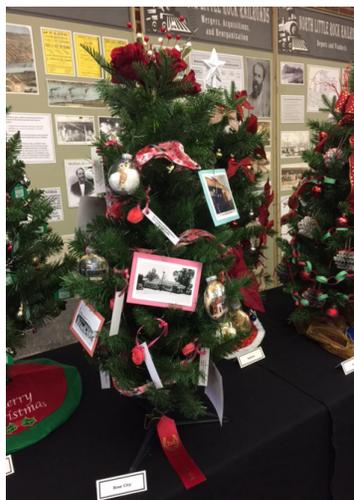

For more information on general rules and important dates, please contact the North Little Rock History Commission at (501)371-0755, email: nlrhistory@comcast.net.
